

- ANNOUNCING -

.....
A book that will open your eyes and will provide a glimpse to a large segment of American numismatic history that only a select few ever knew...
.....

JOHN J. FORD, JR. AND THE “FRANKLIN HOARD”

by Karl Moulton
.....

You will find:

- ◆ A comprehensive background on Western gold items and gold rushes
- ◆ The Father Kino “Silver Trade Bar” story
- ◆ An extensive accounting of bars and ingots known before 1950
- ◆ Hundreds of John J. Ford’s personal letters and invoices from the 1950s and 1960s
- ◆ The names of assayers that were in contact with Gerow Paul Franklin, the “Hoard’s” namesake, along with sources in Phoenix and elsewhere
- ◆ The “Franklin Hoard” material will be listed for the first time
- ◆ Images of previously unknown gold & silver bars and coins that make up the “Franklin Hoard”, most in color
- ◆ The 1966-1968 P.N.G. arbitration proceedings on counterfeit $20 U.S.A.O.G. coins
- ◆ Walter Breen & Don Taxay’s involvement
- ◆ The Josiah K. Lilly gold collection “donated” to the Smithsonian Institution
- ◆ The J.K. Lilly appraisal – first time ever in print
- ◆ Background on gold bars including Parsons, Wiegand, Kohler, Eagle, Thorne, Star, FG Hoard, Knight & Co, along with the so-called S.S. Brother Jonathan bars
- ◆ The “Great Debate” of 1999 between Michael Hodder and Ted Buttrey

Counterfeits were made. Were Ford and Franklin forgers? Find the answer and more in John J. Ford and the “Franklin Hoard”... You will be amazed at what you never knew.

After years of research, writing, and editing, the book is in final production. The 700+ page book will ship around the end of the year. Orders now accepted. Limited to 250 copies.

Pre-Publication Price $250
Regular Price After October 15, $295